Manga Bible, Vol. 7: Death, Resurrection, And The Great Commission (The Gospel, Part 2; Acts, Part 1)

Synopsis

The Bible is larger than life, and kids will love reading its stories told through the graphic storytelling of Korean manga. Readers will enjoy learning the Bible's characters and landscapes portrayed through this cutting-edge style of art now popular around the world. NOT EVEN DEATH CAN STOP THE POWER OF JESUS! The pressure's on as the religious establishment tries to clamp down on Jesus to stop his growing popularity. They even entice one disciple to betray the Messiah -- to the death! But when the grave can't hold him, Jesus entrusts the fisherman Peter and the scholar Paul to lead the ongoing mission as the story of God's great work moves back to Jerusalem, up to heaven, and out to the world.

Bought the entire series for my Nephew, he loves the books and reads them everytime. Makes him really happy. He loves the drawings and illustration, and he enjoys learning the bible while having fun at the same time.

I ordered a few of these because my oldest son who is in the military overseas said he was so bored he actually read the bible. I wanted him to stay interested and he is very short on time due to outpost duty, so I sent him one. He finds it entertaining and doesnt even realize he is starting to remember chapters and events. I would recommend this for young children, teens and young adults but I caution parents to stay involved with their interest and make an effort to add to the discussions and the real text of the Bible.

Love all these series. Kids are not bored reading these. So fun and helps kids understand the Bible stories.

love the graphic looks on it and it show more of what is in the Bible. Great book to read and good one for kids who love anime book.
